

Ford Factory Blackened By $500,000 Fire

Detroit, Dec. 16, (P)—A $500,000 fire swept a plant of the Ford Motor Co., big Rouge factory last night, destroying materials for 200 automobiles.

Alert workers quickly put wheels on more than a score of Mercury cars on the assembly line and rolled them to safety.

No one was injured. Firemen rescued three men and six women who were trapped by the blaze. Three hundred persons were at work.

With 3,800 employees laid off temporarily, Ford officials and firemen continued an investigation today to learn the cause of the fire and the full extent of damage.

The fire broke out in the upholstery department of the final assembly line "B" plant where Mercurys are built. Skylights cracked from the heat.

The blaze was brought under control after an hour's fight by 15 fire companies from Dearborn, Detroit and the Ford company.

The blaze was spectacular, shooting through the Mercury assembly line after breaking out in the upholstery balcony section.

For the time being assembly work will be halted entirely. Ford officials said they had no estimate as to how long it will take to get back into full operation.

Firemen used ladders to rescue the three men, trapped on the balcony, and the six women. The women were in a rest room.

All other employees left the building unaided. Many lost their overcoats and jackets in the flames.

The fire, witnesses said, spread quickly through 1,000 feet of the big plant collapsing skylight glass fell around firemen.

Nick Dadas, a worker, said he saw big sparks shoot out from the balcony.

"It happened so suddenly it was like a flash fire," Dadas said.

The flames spread through a third of the six-block-long building in less than three minutes, Dadas said.

French Blow Up Berlin's Soviet Radio

Berlin, Dec. 16, (P)—The French today blew up the towers of the Soviet-controlled Radio Berlin, knocking the station off the air.

The Russians, however, have another tower outlet, Germany's old Deutschland sender, 20 miles east of the city.

Brig. Gen. Jean Ganeval, French military commander in Berlin, said the two towers were demolished by French forces this morning. The radio was not on the air at the time.

Ganeval said he was compelled to destroy the towers because they were "a very great danger" to Allied aircraft coming in by radar to the new Tegel field in the French sector. The towers were near the field.

The radio station itself is located in the British sector. The Russians have successfully resisted British efforts to force them from the station, which they took over when Berlin fell.

Although the French said they notified the Russians in advance of their demolition plan, the Soviets apparently were unable to set up alternate towers for Radio Berlin, since it went off the air.

German technical experts said it would be a severe blow to Soviet propaganda if Radio Berlin is forced permanently off the air.

They said the reception of the Deutschland Sender was not nearly as good as Radio Berlin and few listened to it.

Democrats To Hold Spring Meeting In Grand Rapids Feb. 5

Grand Rapids, Mich., Dec. 16, (P)—Democratic party leaders said today the Democratic state spring convention will be held in Grand Rapids probably on Feb. 5.

Richard P. Roest, Kent county Democratic chairman, said he would call a county convention for Jan. 27 as soon as he receives formal notification of the spring convention date from the state central committee.

A highlight of the spring meeting is expected to be a fight over the naming of the Democratic state chairman.

The present chairman, John R. Franco, is considered likely to seek reelection against the opposition of highest party officials.

Two possible opponents frequently mentioned are Hicks Griffiths, Detroit attorney and law partner of Governor-elect G. Mennen Williams, and Bernard J. Abbott of Albion, who was a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Williams has publicly stated the party can get along "without Franco."

The convention also will name candidates for state offices in the April election. The primary post involved is that of highway commissioner.

The Republican state central committee earlier announced the GOP state spring convention would be held in Grand Rapids Feb. 19.

Mind Your Business, Hungary Tells U.S.

American Oil Properties Seized; Protest Spurned

Budapest, Dec. 16 (P)—Hungary has told the U. S. state department to "mind its own business."

The remark was contained in a Hungarian rejection of an American protest against seizure of American-owned oil properties.

The note was made public yesterday.

(The U. S. note charged two American employees of a Hungarian subsidiary of the Standard Oil Company (N. J.) were forced by Hungarian police to sign "confessions" that they sabotaged oil production. The state department said the "confessions" were used as an excuse to seize the company's properties.)

The Hungarian government replied that they had established that "grave sabotage was carried out on higher instructions received from America."

The reply also said the "United States state department had better mind its own business" because American "third degree methods of torturing" were notorious outside the United States.

The Hungarian note also charged that sabotage "is an organic part" of the American attitude toward the present regime.

The note added that precious metals and other valuables whose Hungarian owners were murdered by German Fascists were sold in the U. N. in open auctions.

The note said Hungary claims the right "to compensate itself for damages caused by the U. S. government retaining Hungarian property by making use of American property in Hungary."

Economic Planners See Ax Ahead; Start Lansing Backfires

Lansing, Dec. 16 (P)—The state department of economic development today started a backfire to save it from an economy-minded legislature.

A legislative committee has recommended elimination of the agency.

The department released statements by Charles H. Slayman, industrial commissioner of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad and president of the Association of Railroad Development Representatives.

It quoted Slayman as saying the department "is filling a crying need for balanced industrial development in Michigan by coordinating the efforts of railroads, utilities and local chambers of commerce to establish new industry in the state."

Fireworks Plant Explodes; 11 Dead

Guatemala, Dec. 16 (P)—Eleven persons were reported killed and 15 injured last night when a fireworks plant filling Christmas orders exploded. One of the dead and several of the injured were infants.

The plant was in a private home which burned after the blast. Latin Americans use fireworks in celebrating Christmas.

Reds Swarm Into Peiping's Suburbs

By SPENCER MOOSA

Peiping, Dec. 16 (P)—Communists swarmed over the suburbs of Peiping today, rolling towards the thick arched gateways of the ancient city of temples.

Red soldiers pushed close enough to level cannon on the city—but they didn't. This fact alone gave impetus to rumors of peace talks between the Communists and Gen. Fu Tso-Yi, government commander of North China.

Even with guns booming just a few miles away, the one-time capital behaved unlike a city threatened with occupation any day now. It was calm-grumbling about rising food prices and the lights going out but not jittery.

Advance Red troops were reported within several thousand yards of Peiping's northwestern gate. Nearby points fell—places familiar to many tourists, like the summer palace, the Imperial hunting park, the temple of Azure Clouds and the temple of the inverted Shadow.

The Communists took over Yenching and Tsinghua universities, apparently without much opposition. Robert Winter, Crawfordville, Ind., a Tsinghua professor, telephoned friends here he thought the Reds, well-equipped and assured, would move into Peiping within a day or two.

The Communist soldiers he came across were neither unfriendly nor friendly, winter reported; just indifferent.

The Nationalists gave up Fengtai on the Peiping-Tientsin railroad, 3½ miles from the southwestern corner of the city. The Marco Polo bridge became a war prize again as it fell to the Reds. It was there, eight miles southwest of Peiping, that the Sino-Japanese war started in July, 1937.

The dead included two British engineers, connected with the Shell Petroleum company at Bogota. They were identified as A. C. Buchan and E. Howey.

All the other passengers, including eight women and one infant, apparently were Colombians, the airline said.

Lansa officials said packages of fireworks were found near the wreckage.

Fireworks are popular during the Christmas season on Colombia, but are banned from transport in planes.

"The right wing of the plane appears to have come off by an explosion and was burned together with the fuselage," a Lansa statement said.

The army ousted President Salvador Castaneda Castro after a short fight with police Tuesday. It is holding him at El Zapote Fort on a charge of violating the constitution. The charge is based upon Castaneda's efforts to obtain a two-year extension of his term of office, due to expire March 1, 1949.

Maj. Oscar Osorio is expected to lead the Junta (Provisional Council), which is described as rightist. He has been a member of El Salvador's diplomatic staff in Mexico City.

CONVICTED OF KILLING—Detroit, Dec. 16, (P)—A circuit court jury yesterday found Robert L. Meadows, 25, of Detroit, guilty of second degree murder in the July 10 slaying of Frank Kreech, 32-year-old Flat Rock tourist cab-in operator.

Sleet Havoc Is Heavy In Lower State

(By The Associated Press)

Storm-battered sections of Michigan labored today to overcome widespread damage left by Wednesday's vicious sleet storm.

There was a possibility, however, that further trouble was in store in view of a threatening weather forecast.

After a night of snow in the north and intermittent rains elsewhere, the U. S. weather bureau predicted "light, freezing rain" for today.

An early morning report from state police headquarters at East Lansing disclosed no further damage in cities and towns.

Communications also were being restored.

The storm had knocked out power systems and disrupted communications in an area from Lake Michigan to the Thumb district.

No Electric Power—Hardest hit of all was Ionia. The city in the heart of lower Michigan was isolated. Almost all its electricity and telephone service was cut off. Schools and factories were forced to close.

For five hours on Wednesday Ionia had no power whatsoever. When limited service was restored, places of business were ordered to keep use of their lighting to a minimum so that homes could draw on the supply.

Over much of Ionia county the situation was similar.

Falling temperatures Wednesday night added to the general severity through central Michigan.

Trees collapsed under their crusts of ice, hindering the already snarled traffic and endangering utility lines.

Reports from Alma said that trees were down in every block of the city. The Union Telephone Co. said its damage was the worst it ever suffered from a storm.

In Grand Rapids, Calvin college dismissed its classes. Five hundred fallen trees were counted.

The trolley coach system broke down in Flint because of ice on the wires.

Colombian Airliner Wrecked, 30 Killed

Plateau Crash Blamed On Smuggled Fireworks

Barranquilla, Colombia, Dec. 16 (P)—Investigators pushed today toward a plateau rim 25 miles west of Bogota, where Lansa airlines said one of its passenger planes crashed yesterday, killing all 30 persons aboard.

Lansa officials said packages of fireworks, apparently smuggled aboard the plane, may have caused the crash.

The plane, a two-engine DC-3, was en route from Bogota to Barranquilla. It carried a crew of four and 26 passengers. Two stewardesses were aboard.

A member of the Civil Aviation board at Bogota said the plane crashed within five minutes after takeoff.

The dead included two British engineers, connected with the Shell Petroleum company at Bogota. They were identified as A. C. Buchan and E. Howey.

All the other passengers, including eight women and one infant, apparently were Colombians, the airline said.

Lansa officials said packages of fireworks were found near the wreckage.

Fireworks are popular during the Christmas season on Colombia, but are banned from transport in planes.

"The right wing of the plane appears to have come off by an explosion and was burned together with the fuselage," a Lansa statement said.

Prison Terms Given To Careless Plant Workers In Russia

London, Dec. 16 (P)—The Moscow radio said today prison terms ranging from five to seven years have been meted out to 12 Soviet factory directors and engineers for producing defective goods.

The broadcast said they were sentenced "as a result of investigations into cases of production of defective and sub-standard goods in Soviet industrial enterprises."

The report said a tank factory at Chelyabinsk, accused of producing "defective goods," is still being investigated. Other probes deal with textile, automobile and tractor factories at undisclosed points.

The broadcast followed a report from Moscow radio yesterday that Soviet industrial output had reached a point 17 per cent higher than pre-war totals.

Ouster Of Benson From Prison Post Called Unjustified

Doctor Fired By Sanford Also Gets Job Back

Lansing, Dec. 16 (P)—The State Civil Service Commission hearing board today declared the firing of former Warden Ralph E. Benson of the State Prison of Southern Michigan "unjustified" and reinstated him as a prison warden.

Benson was fired last summer by Corrections Commissioner Joseph W. Sanford. The corrections commissioner accused Benson of inattention to and neglect of duties, lack of cooperation, conversion of state property in relation to a few hundred dollars worth of automobile repairs and "conduct unbecoming a state official due to excessive use of liquor."

Excessive Drinking Denied—Benson appealed the ouster, during the two days of testimony before the hearing board last week the charge of "excessive use of liquor" was the most bitterly debated issue. Sanford produced numerous witnesses—mostly prison officials—who testified Benson drank to excess. Benson admitted "I take an occasional drink" but said he never drank to excess.

At the same time, the hearing board announced that it had reinstated Dr. De Witt C. Adams, Jackson prison physician also fired by Sanford. No decision was made at this time on the case of Dr. Lawrence M. Rutz.

The board ordered Benson's reinstatement effective today with back pay to be awarded him from a period of Aug. 12, when he was dismissed, to the reinstatement date.

No Neglect of Duty—1.—The board feels from the testimony given that Benson's use of intoxicating liquor, if any, did not in any way interfere with the performance of his duties.

2.—"Conversion of state property to private use—testimony was undisputed x x x that the warden x x x and the deputy Warden (former Warden Fred C. Sanborn, now a parole board member) had their private automobiles repaired, serviced and supplied with gas and oil for many years, and that this practice was known to and approved by the appointing authority in question over a long period of time. x x x the board is of the opinion that an employee can not be discharged for actions which were approved by the appointing authority x x x."

3.—Regarding the charge of neglect of duties, the board found that during the period to which this charge applied that "his physical condition was such that he should not have worked at all. This physical condition, the hearing board finds, was solely due to overwork and was in no way attributable to the use of intoxicating liquor."

Garage Torn Down; He Wins Two Cars

Kansas City, Dec. 16 (P)—Clem Doerhoff tore down his garage sometime ago because he didn't have anything to keep in it and slim prospects.

But today he had two cars and no place to keep them.

He won one in a contest at an American Legion dance last night, and then had to take a taxi-cab back to get another one, given as a premium to Mrs. Doerhoff for selling the winning ticket.

Williams Goes Slow On New Road Taxes

Governor-Elect Checks On License Revenues

Lansing, Dec. 16 (P)—Governor-elect Williams made it clear Wednesday he will make up his own mind on higher highway taxes.

Williams met with the study committee of the Michigan Good Road Federation and needed its members about their proposals to raise taxes $28,000,000 a year to finance a 15-year $1,400,000,000 road improvement program.

The governor-elect good-naturedly quizzed the committee as to how its recommendations were reached. He did not object to any, however, and said he would accept the committee's engineering studies as a basis for its own proposals.

Williams, from his questions, appeared to have in his mind doubts about:

Whether a proposed 33 per cent increase in the truck and bus license tax was fair, compared to a 15 cent per hundredweight increase in passenger car licenses.

Whether the various higher taxes proposed were "negotiated" between rival interests on the committee or represented a scientifically-attained plan.

Whether the new tax distribution formula proposed—44 per cent to the state, 37 per cent to the counties and 19 per cent to the municipalities—was fair to the cities.

State Employees Ask For Extra Holidays

Lansing, Dec. 16 (P)—Governor-elect Sigler was asked by the CIO United Public Workers Union today to give all state employees an extra day's holiday for Christmas and New Years day.

The request affects mainly institutional employees who normally work on Saturday and who would be denied an additional day off under Civil Service rules because the two holidays fall on Saturday.

The union, in a letter by Executive Director Donald Murray, urged that the Friday preceding Christmas and New Years be declared holidays for state employees.

Then institutional employees, he wrote, could take Saturday off in lieu of Friday's holiday or work Saturday and have Friday off.

Lifting Of Ban Launches $2,000,000 Trust Fund

Philadelphia, Dec. 16 (AP)—The 13 recording firms which signed an agreement yesterday with the American Federation of Musicians (AFM) to contribute to the public knowledge and appreciation of music.

This is the fund accruing from royalties on records paid by the manufacturers. Until passage of the Taft-Hartley law, the royalties went into the union's welfare fund. The law prohibited this, leading to James C. Petrillo's "never again" declaration on recordings a year ago.

The new agreement, which calls for payment of royalties in a trust fund, administered by a neutral trustee, by-passes the Taft-Hartley law on use of royalties for the benefit of any person other than those actually making the recordings.

Rosenbaum says manufacturers already have paid $100,000 into the fund, and estimated not less than $1,500,000 will be contributed during the first year of the agreement.

Four Men Involved In Numbers Ring At Flint Auto Plants

Flint, Mich., Dec. 16 (AP)—Four men, two of them already under indictment, were accused by a state grand jury today of operating a numbers syndicate that reached into Flint's big auto plants.

Circuit Judge Karl K. Leibrand charged that the syndicate hired "runners" who obtained jobs as factory janitors so they could make sales in the plants. Judge Leibrand did not estimate how much the ring had netted but claimed that it operated from 1943 until last July.

Those named were Miller Q. Birch, 41, Richard L. Kirby, 41, a cigar store operator, Edward C. Coggins, 44 and James Summers, 61, another cigar store proprietor. The grand juror named Birch as the leader of the syndicate and held him under $2,000 bond for examination Dec. 29. The others were held under bonds of $1,000 each and will appear on the same date.

ICE HAMPER ROAD TRAFFIC

Highway Conditions In U. P. Better Today

Highway traffic was moving today throughout the Upper Peninsula with increasing confidence after being delayed yesterday because of generally icy conditions that extended into Lower Michigan and Wisconsin.

The U. P. branch office of the state highway department in Escanaba reported that slippery conditions continued on most trunklines from the Bay City line north, Mackinac and Chippewa counties in the U. P. were the worst, with some mist still falling this morning. Elsewhere the sun was helping clear the ice from pavements.

Greyhound bus lines were back on schedule today in the Upper Peninsula, it was reported by Norman Hansen, local manager.

Yesterday one bus was tied up at Florence, Wis., because of ice; and the bus out of Milwaukee arrived here yesterday two and one-half hours late.

The midnight bus north out of Rapid River to Calumet encountered so much ice last night that it tied up at Treenary until conditions improved, Hansen reported. A bus from Manistique to St. Ignace made the trip in four hours and 15 minutes. Normal time on that run is about two hours.

Because of ice conditions in the air, Nationwide Airlines cancelled its northbound plane to Escanaba yesterday. Service daily through the holiday period to Jan. 3 will be resumed tomorrow, it was reported at the Escanaba airport.

Escanaba street crews began sanding intersections yesterday and the work continued this morning. Trunkline highways were being sanded by county road commission crews.

Both in Wisconsin and Michigan yesterday the state highway offices issued "stay at home if you can" warnings to motorists.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Dec. 16 (AP)—Police today hunted for the slayer of Byron C. Hattman, 29, an aircraft armament expert from St. Louis, whose body was found in a blood-spattered seventh-floor hotel room yesterday. There was evidence of a terrific struggle.

Coroner Robert Brosh said Hattman, who specialized in armament design for the Emerson Electric Co. of St. Louis, was killed by a powerful stab thrust which broke his seventh rib and pierced his heart.

Louis Crown on Line In Every Exhibition; Pat Comiskey Tonite

Paterson, N. J., Dec. 16 (AP)—Heavyweight champion Joe Louis meets Paterson's Pat Comiskey tonight in a six-round affair billed as an exhibition.

Louis, as in all of his other exhibitions, will be putting his crown on the line, when he walks into the ring.

This situation was explained by Abe J. Green, National Boxing Association commissioner. Greene said:

"Anyone who is over 175 pounds is a heavyweight. Thus if any legitimate heavyweight knocks out the champion, he certainly would be the champion. It would cause plenty of controversy, but that would have to be the ruling."

In other divisions, he pointed out, when the titleholder fights in an exhibition, he specifies that his opponent must be over the weight and so eliminates any chance of losing the crown.

Ouster of Benson Called Unfair

ing hours." 4—"The board said the charged lack of cooperation "was due to his deteriorating physical condition, which condition in the main was caused by the exhausting labors of the work."

Health Regained
The board said that Benson "had fully enough to do" as warden of the world's largest walled prison but in addition he had undergone three separate investigations conducted during most of his term as Southern Michigan P. I. son warden.

Benson testified that he was accused by Sanford of siding in the attempted blocking of Sanford's confirmation by the Senate. The board said it felt that there was no evidence produced to support the commissioner's contention in this matter.

"The hearing board is of the opinion," the formal decision said, "that there is no personal animosity between Joseph W. Sanford and Ralph E. Benson. The testimony of physicians x x x showed that Benson has responded well to medical treatment, and he is now again able to perform his duties as warden. We feel that as warden he will cooperate to the fullest extent with those that are his superiors."

Commissioner Sanford refused immediate comment on the report, "until I have studied the board's formal findings." Sanford recently appointed Brigadier General Julian N. Frisbie acting warden of the Jackson prison. Benson was reinstated in his classification as "Warden 6" but Civil Service made no recommendation as to what job he should take over.

This posed the question of which man would head the prison but Sanford had no immediate comment on how he planned to unsnarl the difficulty.

Sanford has the right to appeal the case to the full Civil Service commission.

VETERAN CITY CLERK IS DEAD

Long Illness Fatal To
Carl E. Anderson

Carl E. Anderson, 70, veteran Escanaba city clerk, who retired December 1 because of ill health, died last night at 11:45 at his home, 910 South 17th street.

Mr. Anderson, who was a fireman for the Chicago & North Western in his early years, first became associated with the City of Escanaba on June 5, 1912, as street commissioner and held that position until he was elected city clerk April 17, 1916. He continued as C. E. Anderson city clerk, an office which became appointive following the adoption of the council-manager form of government in 1922, continuously from that time until his retirement. He also served as city weigh master for many years. He was city assessor until the past year, and by virtue of that office represented the city on the Delta County Board of Supervisors. Carl, as he was known throughout the community, also served as manager of the farmers' market from the time of its inauguration, a position closely associated with his hobby of gardening, particularly the raising of exceptional flower blooms, his favorites gladioli, in which he excelled.

Born in Sweden April 2, 1878, he was brought to Escanaba by his parents when he was 2 years old.

He was a member of the First Methodist church, Impellanti Lodge 460, I. O. O. F., the Rebekah lodge, the Encampment, Hiawatha Canton, the North Star lodge and the Woodmen of the World.

Surviving are his wife, two sons, Gerald C. Anderson, United States Navy, Mare Island, Calif., who was called home when his father's condition became critical; and Edward F. Escanaba; one daughter, Florence L. Anderson, a student at Lawrence college, Appleton, Wis., who also has been at home for the past week; two grandchildren; one brother, Arthur B., of Boone, Ia.; and a sister, Mrs. Frank Finman, Port Wing, Wis.

Funeral services will be held at the Anderson funeral home chapel at 2:30 p. m. Saturday with Rev. Otto Steen officiating, assisted by Rev. Karl J. Hammar. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery. Friends of the family may call at the funeral home beginning at 3:30 p. m. Friday.

JCC Toy Drive To Close On Saturday

The Escanaba Junior Chamber of Commerce surplus toy drive will officially close Saturday, December 18, according to William Meiers, chairman. He reminds anyone wishing to donate toys that Friday will be the last day that contributions will be accepted. Those who wish to donate toys are requested to call the Chamber of Commerce on Friday so that they might be included in the final pickup that will be conducted Saturday morning.

According to Meiers, a good quantity of surplus toys has been received to date but from indications the number of children in need of Santa Claus assistance has grown over last year. He stated that in order to provide a happy Christmas for all children in Escanaba, a wide distribution must be made of surplus toys as many families find themselves only able to provide the bare essentials of leaving.

Meiers stated that all types of toys can still be used for boys and girls from baby stage to teenagers. He asked especially that games be contributed which are in usable condition. Meiers concluded, "People of Escanaba have responded very well to this surplus toy drive, which is the first time a drive of this sort has been accomplished. We hope that during this last day many more peo-

Flash Floods Spill Over West Virginia After 24-Hour Rain

Weston, W. Va., Dec. 16 (AP)—Flash floods in north-central West Virginia and western Maryland spilled water into several communities early today after a saturating 24-hour rain.

A half-dozen highways were blocked by either water or landslide barricades.

A large section of a 50-foot cliff near here broke off and fell against a house, demolishing a room where a two-year-old child was sleeping. The child, however, escaped with minor scratches on her leg and forehead.

Passengers marooned in a city bus stalled by water were transferred to higher ground by boats. Rain and ice plagued the western Maryland area. Rural sections were in darkness last night after heavy ice snapped utility wires. Oakland streets were ankle deep, and serious damage to the area was threatened by rising headwaters of a stream that flows through the town.

No fatalities were reported.

Pleads Not Guilty To Reckless Driving

James R. LaCrosse, 311 South 15th street, was ticketed for reckless driving Wednesday evening as a result of an accident in the 1000 block of Washington avenue. LaCrosse pleaded not guilty at his arraignment today and the case was set for trial on Monday, Dec. 20.

LaCrosse was driving north on Washington avenue and applied his brakes to slow down for a car ahead of him. LaCrosse said the brakes apparently locked and his car swerved across the street and struck a parked car, which in turn collided into another parked car. The parked automobiles were owned by Lt. Carl Olson of the Salvation Army and Paul Larsen, 1027 Washington avenue. Both cars, as well as LaCrosse's machine, were damaged.

As an outgrowth of the traffic mishap, James Froberg, 110 South Eighth street, drew a 30 day jail sentence for striking Officer James Bohan of the Escanaba police department.

Michigan Bell Asks Rate Increase

THE Michigan Bell Telephone company has announced that it will seek further rate increases from its customers in an application to be presented to the Michigan Public Service commission on Dec. 29. The announcement does not come as any surprise in view of recent wage increases to telephone employees and the need for expansion and modernization of telephone equipment in the face of increased installation costs.

The telephone company has indicated that it will seek rate increases in two steps, one to raise revenues "immediately" to the extent of $10,000,000 a year. The second, to raise an additional $10,000,000, would become effective at a later date, presumably after the commission had made a more detailed study of the company's rate structure and financial needs.

Since the Public Service commission has only recently completed an exhaustive and expensive examination of the Michigan Bell company's financial situation, it may be presumed that the commission has available most of the information that it will need to base a prompt and equitable decision in the phone rate case.

That the telephone company is entitled to additional revenue seems obvious. Whether it actually is entitled to the full extent of its request is not so obvious. The "third round" wage boosts recently granted to telephone employees upon recommendation of a fact-finding panel appointed by Governor Sigler totalled $7,000,000. Even before that wage increase, the company had an application for a rate boost before the commission that was ruled out because of legal advertising requirements. Further, the company's investors are entitled to a reasonable return on their capital investments.

All of the factors will be considered by the Public Service commission when it takes up the telephone rate case.

Kai-shek's Rule In China Nears End

REGARDLESS OF ANY sympathies that may exist in this country for General Kai Shek or for Madame Kai Shek, who is beseeching Washington for emergency aid to the Chinese Nationalists, the fast pace of events in China indicates that Chiang is all through as the leader of the anti-Communists in that country.

The fall of Chiang when it comes, which probably will be soon, can be traced directly to his stubborn but futile effort to save Manchuria at any cost. It can be traced indirectly to many other but equally foolish military decisions which have bled his armies. The Manchurian debacle was predicted by virtually every military observer in China. Chiang was beseeched repeatedly to move his troops from their indefensible position in Manchuria. He disregarded all these warnings, with the result that not only his crack troops, numbering hundreds of thousands, were destroyed in Manchuria but the best equipment available to the Chinese army was lost, too. It fell into the hands of the Communists who have used it effectively to drive the Nationalists out of North China.

Just what can be done, if anything, to save China from being entirely swallowed by a Communist government remains obscure. One thing is certain. Chiang no longer commands the united support of the non-Communist forces in China. Any hopes for halting the spread of Communism in China depend upon new leadership. Generous American aid to such leadership would undoubtedly be forthcoming.

Congress And Price Control

THOSE WHO THINK that the last election was a practically unqualified victory for partisans of price control, do not seem to be supported by the available facts. For example, the Associated Press polled the members of the new Congress in an effort to learn their positions on a number of highly important and controversial matters. When it came to price control, 200 members took a definite stand in answering this question: "Do you favor giving the President power to fix price controls?" Ninety-seven said yes—while 103, including a considerable number of Democrats, said no.

This certainly does not mean that a majority of Congressmen are not interested in the complex control of inflation. But it does mean that there is a widespread realization of the fact that price control would create worse problems than the one it is supposed to correct. It is a perfect example of dealing with symptoms of a bad condition instead of with the causes of that condition. How, in the face of unbridled government spending, record income, record employment, exorbitant taxes, ever-soaring wages, and all the other inflationary forces, can anyone expect to successfully force prices down by fiat and still keep the production machine going?

One particularly good illustration of the hopelessness of effective price control is retail trade. Increasing competition is forcing a shading of profit margins. In other words, room just doesn't exist to make anything resembling a noticeable cut in prices. Most manufacturers are in a similar position. So it's no wonder that enthusiasm in Congress for price control seems to be far from universal.

Speeders Get Police Warning

CHIEF OF POLICE M. E. Ettenhofer has indicated that the Escanaba police department is stepping up its campaign against speeders and reckless drivers as a means of checking traffic accidents in the city. Such a program will undoubtedly draw favorable response from a majority of local residents who are gravely concerned with the increasing number of auto accidents.

A vigilant enforcement program on the part of the police will help to cut accidents but motorists must realize that this alone is not enough to solve the problem. Of greater importance is the need for every driver to recognize his stake in motor accident control and to react accordingly.

Aside from the terrible cost in human lives, in broken bones and permanent injuries, traffic accidents are expensive from a financial standpoint to motorists. The current extremely high cost of liability and property damage insurance is a case in point. The cost of ironing out the wrinkles and bumps in fenders is another woe of auto accidents.

The auto accident rate will be sharply reduced only when motorists exercise greater caution on the roads, drive more slowly and remain alert at the wheel.

DECLINE OF POETRY

(From the Portland Oregonian).

A visiting English poet, Stephen Spender, who is in this country to lecture on the new school of English poetry, in which he is a leader, expressed regret, in a recent interview, that poetry no longer is a great influence in the lives of the people. Modern poetry, he declared, is "the desire to express a modern experience at all costs even if it means a revolution in form." One cannot write of the modern world in "the style of the sonnets of Keats."

Should all poetic conventions be discarded, because of the difficulty? The question is ours, not the visitor's. There is we remark parenthetically, no present-day Keats within range of it. But who shall say, if there were another Keats in the modern scene, how he would administer his gift? Let us suppose that another James Russell Lowell were to give us today another such poem of challenge as "The Present Crisis." Could this be done in a modern form? We think not, yet in any case we doubt that the people would read it.

There was nothing amiss with the old forms, and there may not be with the new—and the answer, we think, lies not in any fault of the medium but in the distraction of the people. They are preoccupied with diversions and hence are indifferent to poetry. Only time, and a resumption of the old concepts of culture, will remedy this.

A LECTURE BY THE SOVIETS

(Milwaukee Journal)

The Soviet government newspaper Izvestia recently warned the Scandinavian countries to avoid forming a military bloc or joining the western European union.

Said Izvestia: "The lessons of history more than once have shown the small countries how disastrous for them is participation in the expansionist policy of aggressive powers."

True, true. The lessons of history have also shown, we might add, how disastrous it is for a small country to be a neighbor of Soviet Russia.

WHAT'S THE ORIGIN?

Q. We've been hearing and reading so much about the Dixiecrats that you'll do us a favor if you'll give us the origin of the name Dixie.—G. M. R.

A. The origin of Dixie, as a name for the Southern states, is uncertain. Of the many theories that have been advanced, these three are the commonest:

1. Dixie is a shortened form of Dixon, from the famous boundary line between Maryland and Pennsylvania known as Mason and Dixon's line (they were the surveyors).

2. A Mr. Dixy (or Dixie) once owned a plantation on Manhattan Island. He held many slaves until hostile Northern sentiment forced him to move to the South. His slaves languished and yearned for their New York "Dixy land," a phrase that was adopted by Southern slaves and used to designate the South.

3. This theory is probably correct. The name Dixie originated in Louisiana before the Civil War. The Citizen's Bank of New Orleans issued $10 bills on which was engraved the large word DIX, the French word for "ten."

Now the French pronunciation of dix is "deess." But the non-French-speaking Southerners and travelers in the South naturally rhymed dix with fix, and began calling the bank notes "dixies." Since the bills were widely circulated, the South came to be known as the land of dixies, hence Dixie land.

The song "Dixie" was written on a dreary winter morning in 1859, when Daniel Decatur Emmet, a not too successful song writer and minstrel man, sat shivering in his New York lodgings and longing for the warm sunshine "away down South in Dixie." During the War, "Dixie" became the

Red Inquiry Like Circus

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington.—Both at home and abroad, the running battle over who spied on what and what spies shall be punished, and how is doing infinite harm. Abroad it makes this supposedly rich and powerful country look ludicrous beyond words.

Here at home it makes a matter that should be considered with the utmost seriousness look like an early Mack Sennett comedy.

We have had everything but an exchange of custard pie, and that will probably come sooner or later. This would, in fact, be the moment to subpoena Charlie Chaplin.

It began with the over-eager publicity of the House un-American activities committee. That established a circus atmosphere almost as much as though an old-time spieler had stood outside the door of the committee room haranguing the crowd to come in to see the wonders on display.

IT'S ALL BUNK

One stunt was to show a committee guard sleeping in front of a safe containing the stolen documents. The public gathered the idea that these were so vital to the security of the nation that a 24-hour guard was absolutely essential.

This is bunk. The documents are about as vital to American security today as a 1938 calendar. I have been given this assurance by the very best authority.

In perhaps two or three places they might slightly interfere with the present conduct of foreign relations, giving the Russians a minor propaganda handle. But even that is debatable. Experts could well disagree about this.

Immediately, of course, one of the committee leaks let it be known that the administration wanted to keep the documents secret because they contained material highly embarrassing to prominent administration figures. Again on excellent authority, I can say that this is also untrue. One minor official, whose name most people could not even identify, might do a little squirming. He is no longer connected with the government.

The sensible thing would be to give out all the material at once, possibly with the passages mentioned above. To release a few of the documents as the committee has done is to leave the impression that others of a far more significant nature are being kept back.

COULD HAVE BROKEN CODE

The fact that the documents are not vital to national security now, ten years after they were removed from the files, does not detract from their importance. As Sumner Welles testified, they were secret documents and they could have been used to break the state department code. To remove them was a crime and those who are guilty should be punished.

There is an orderly way to proceed to do this. It is not by klieg lights, by inflammatory statements, by public imprecations shouted from the house-tops. That is the surest way to spread the widest doubt and confusion in the public mind.

President Truman's offhand press conference remarks were in this vein. But at the same time it must be said that the un-American committee seems determined to prove that the president was right when he said this was merely the final political fireworks of a committee that is about to expire. Two of the members taking part in the carnival of statements and leaks and counterleaks are lame ducks defeated on Nov. 2.

The administration has much to answer for in the whole miserable mess. Since these were for the most part state department documents, it is strange that Acting Secretary of State Robert Lovett has not assumed some authority.

Lovett has every right to ask to be heard. Yet from the department we get nothing at all. The acting secretary could quickly end the hocus-pocus over national security.

The law enforcement arm of the government is the department of justice. To present the espionage case before the grand jury in New York, the justice department must have access to the microfilms that Whittaker Chambers turned over to the committee. Yet the committee repeatedly refused the request of the justice department and the FBI to examine the films, allowing them to see only prints from them.

In several instances the Congress now expiring tried to usurp the law enforcement and punishment function of the executive branch of the government. The un-American committee offered the most glaring examples. With this kind of internecine warfare going on, there can be no order. The 81st Congress will meet in three weeks and there should be a little more coordination after that.

Confederates' war song.

Q. What kind of Southern food does the name "hush puppy" designate, or has someone been pulling my leg?—A. M.

A. A hush puppy is a small pone of corn bread, formed into an oval by the palm of the hand and fried, usually in the grease in which ham, bacon, or fish has previously been fried. Hush puppies, when cooked to perfection, are delicious and nutritious. According to Southern legend, hush puppies got their name during and following the Civil War when food, especially meat of any kind, was so scarce that the dogs howled constantly from hunger. The Negroes would cook the pones both for table use and for feeding the dogs. The hush puppies were so called because they "hushed the puppies."

Well, Here We Go Again

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

GOOD SAFE PLACE—We were chatting with some friends the other day about those people who have a habit of losing things. Well, not losing them. Misplacing is the better word.

Dunathan

In summary we decided that it is the careful people, the people who say, "I'll put it right here so I'll know where to look for it when I want it," who are most likely to lose things. They have too many "good safe places" to hide things. In this they remind me of an old hound owned by a friend of mine. The hound was forever burying bones—but never once was he able to locate them again. He was confused by his own diligence.

There is a lesson in this for all of us. The best "safe place" for valuables is a safety deposit vault in the bank; the next best is a strong box in your own home.

WHAT BECOMES OF IT?—A man we knew in years past was addicted to putting away articles for safe keeping even when they weren't valuables. Money order receipts were tucked behind picture frames, letters that needed answering were placed far back in desk drawers, and he always managed to find a new and "better" place to put his keys.

The result was that he never could find anything he wanted when he wanted it. He could find his keys when he looked for a letter, and a money order receipt when he sought his keys. Sometimes he would find something that had been missing for a long time. Finding it, he would gloat to his wife, "See, I told you that letter from Bill hadn't been thrown away! I found it in the bookcase while I was looking for my keys."

"Did you locate your keys?" inquired his spouse innocently, and her husband would be off on another quest of his many hiding places. He has lost more sets of keys than he can remember, or will admit to losing.

OUT OF SIGHT—There are the classic stories of the lady who looked all over the house for her hat and found it on her head, of the man who couldn't locate his glasses because they were perched on his forehead, and the boy who searched the house for his socks in the morning and then discovered he had not taken them off the night before.

Such stories are common, but it is extraordinary when a man will call the police station and excitedly report that his car has been stolen—only to find that he put the car in his garage and had not let it stand in the driveway. And another man once reported that he had misplaced his wife. She was not at home when he came from work, and she had not planned to go anywhere, he said. We were prepared to break out the bloodhounds when his wife came home late that night—from her bridge club meeting.

OUT OF MIND—Lots of things get lost—including cars, keys, rings, wives, and several hundred acres of land.

The land acreage was "lost" in Delta county, you will recall, and was "found" when the Clemenshaw company made a reconnaissance of taxable property for the board of supervisors. The land

Twenty Years Ago

Escanaba—Gordon Alek has arrived from Winona, Minn., where he attends St. Mary college and will spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Alek.

Perkins—Perkin's new $33,000 school building, one of the finest rural school plants in the Upper Peninsula, was dedicated with appropriate exercises Dec. 15. Regular classes have been in session here for the past week.

Manistiquette—Miss Faye Bretz, Miss Elizabeth Falk and Meredith Nelson, students of Lawrence college, in Appleton, have arrived to spend the holidays at home. The college closed earlier than usual because of a flu epidemic.

was lost so far as the township tax rolls and the assessors were concerned. No record of the land was on the rolls, and therefore no tax payments would be required. The owner could have failed to pay taxes forever without losing title, unless the "lost" description was "found" by the appraisers.

LONG REMEMBERED—Some of the greatest "losses" in history have been long remembered. There was the "lost tribe of Israel" for example. The story of its wanderings has become familiar throughout the Christian world, and archaeologists retrace their path and wrote an article for the National Geographic Society.

The mystery of the "lost" Griffin, first sailing ship on the Great Lakes, is told and retold although the ship disappeared nearly 300 years ago.

And as a publicity stunt a Hollywood screwball not so long ago conducted a hunt for a needle in a haystack. So the old mysteries of things lost is combined in popular imagination with today's dramatization of searching a haystack for a needle.

IN FRONT OF YOU—But the "lost" articles that cause most amusement are those mislaid in plain view of the searcher, yet escapes his search. Everyone has had the experience of failure to locate the newspaper "I placed here only a moment ago." In one family a diligent search for the can of cinnamon went on for several days until it was found—where? In the refrigerator!

Not to belittle, but as an illustration of the theme, the father in another family was "lost" in the living room. He had come from work while his wife was out and, very tired, had slumped in to a deep chair for a nap. The children and their mother gathered in the kitchen. The dinner hour passed. Where was father? They ate and came into the living room to see him sit up and rub the sleep from his eyes.

New York (AP)—Santa Claus had a problem.

"I don't have any trouble picking presents for the children," he wrote. "But these grownups—so many of them want books."

"But what book? I don't have much time to read, and this year the dad-blamed publishers came out with about 9,000 new titles. Can you imagine anybody in his right mind wading through 9,000 new books? How about helping me again?"

So, for the third year, I have compiled a tentative list of gift books to be sent to famous folks around the world. Hyar 'tis—all in good fun.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—Grover Whalen, New York's famous and popular greeter, is sole witness to the only conversation between President Truman and Governor Dewey during the recent campaign.

It occurred at the opening of Idlewild Airport last June, when Whalen introduced Truman to Dewey. On this occasion Truman made one of his proverbial off-the-cuff remarks.

"Governor," he said, "what do you want to get into the White House for? There's nothing there but trouble."

COMMON-SENSE CONGRESSMAN
Senator-elect Karl Mundt of South Dakota has more prestige and common sense than any other member of the House un-American activities committee. Unlike some of his colleagues he knows the difference between right and wrong.

Writing to a South Dakota constituent about the knock-down, drag-out tactics of the committee, Mundt frankly admitted: "I agree with you about the procedural methods of the House committee on un-American activities. For your information, Congressman Nixon of California and I have been working for some weeks on a new set of rules to govern the procedure of our committee. Just as soon as Chairman Thomas is back, we expect to have the committee approve these procedures."

"Thomas," continued Mundt, "is a hard fellow to control, as he is a bit of a publicity seeker, and is also of a 'highly impetuous' nature."

"While he usually has the facts pretty well in hand before he speaks up in public, still I do not like his method of making a public statement about an individual until he has had the opportunity to be heard before the committee. I feel certain that the abuses of which you rightfully complain are going to be corrected within the next two or three weeks."

MUNDT IN GRANDSTAND
Not merely three weeks, but nearly twelve months have passed since that letter was written. In the interim, Parnell Thomas has been relegated to the sidelines, and here's what's been happening under the two congressmen—Mundt and Nixon—who did not approve Thomas's "publicity-seeking."

It was on Nov. 19 that the Baltimore attorneys for Hiss and Chambers called the justice department and revealed that secret state department documents had turned up in the Hiss-Chambers slander suit. Hard-working Alex Campbell, assistant attorney general, went to Baltimore that same day.

It was 21 days later, Dec. 1, that alert Robert Stripling, attorney for the un-American activities

He was affiliated with St. Patrick's church and was a member of the Holy Name society of the congregation.

McRae and Mrs. Henry Blake, sr., of Escanaba, and Mrs. Frank C. Waukegan, Ill.; an aunt, Mrs. Hugh McMillan of Hancock, and a number of nieces and nephews.

World Population
Too Big Now, Says
British Scientist

Beirut, Lebanon, (P)—Julian Huxley, the British scientist, sees the world's population increase as a greater threat to our civilization than war.

In his final report, the retiring director-general of the United Nations education, scientific and cultural organization (UNESCO), said the world population reached 1,000,000,000 in the 19th century and would soar to 2,000,000,000 in the 20th. He predicted another billion would be added in the 21st century.

Estate of Henes Is Left To Widow

Menominee, Mich.—The will of John E. Henes, Menominee capitalist who died at Ann Arbor last week, was filed for probate in Judge Katherine Stiles Laughton's court Tuesday. The will bequeaths the entire estate to his widow, Mrs. Dorothy Sawbridge Henes, with the exception of a $2,000 bequest to Mrs. Louise Rittich, who served as housekeeper many years.

No estimate as to value of the estate was filed with the petition for admission of the will to probate, other than the statement that Mr. Henes left personal property in excess of $100,000 and real estate worth in excess of $10,000.

The will of the late Peter C. Servatius, retired Menominee meat dealer, was also filed for probate with Judge Laughton today. The will lists special bequests to three of Mr. Servatius' children, Mrs. Florence Gallagher of Milwaukee; Mrs. W. E. Hartter of Terre Haute, Ind.; and Carl Servatius of Menominee. The rest of the estate is left to his other daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Russell.

Oct. 1 Count Gives U. S. 147,280,000

Washington, (AP)—This country's population reached 147,280,000 on October 1, the census bureau estimated.

Although that is the highest ever recorded, the bureau said the rate of increase has slowed down from last year's pace. Nevertheless the 1948 expansion will top any other year's.

The bureau's figures included about 466,000 persons in the armed forces overseas and about 926,000 in military service in this country.

Population growth in the first nine months of 1948 amounted to about 1,800,000 persons, an average increase of about 200,000 a month.

In the corresponding period of 1947, there was an increase of about 2,100,000 persons, an average of over 233,000 a month.

Since the last actual count the population total has risen by about 15,500,000 persons.

of Menominee. No estimate of the value of the state was filed.

of charge and furnish chaperones as a service to the young people of Munising.

While the Musician's union is furnishing the music free this Friday night, the usual procedure is to make a small charge per person to be used toward paying for an orchestra on other nights as the money comes available in large enough amounts to do so. The deficiency in amounts is made up on nights when the juke box is used for music and the total proceeds are used in this manner.

Doors will be open at 8:30 and dancing will begin at nine o'clock.

Ensign Township Improves Park on Bau de Noc Shore

The application of gravel surfacing to roads leading into and through Twin Springs park on the shore of Little Bay de Noc south of Garth on the Stonington peninsula is the latest improvement work authorized by the Ensign township board.

Last year roads in the park were cleared and graded. This year the road leading into the park from County Road 513 was brushed and graded, and more park tables were constructed.

The township board in recent meeting authorized Henry Lundberg, township park and highway commissioner, to expend $1,200 for the 1,400 yards of pit-run gravel necessary to gravel the entrance road and driveways in the park. The work will be done by the Delta county highway department, and the funds for the work will be from sales tax diversion money. Ensign township annually receives about $3,500 in sales tax.

It was decided to do the graveling now when the road grades are frozen, which will facilitate heavy hauling and reduce the cost.

The Ensign township board is composed of Harold Gustafson, supervisor; Mrs. Blanche Teinert, clerk; Maurice Shane, justice; Harry Froberg, justice; and Mrs. Ina Lundberg, treasurer.

Full House Hears
Student Concert

William W. Oliver Memorial auditorium was full to the doors last night for the annual Christmas concert presented by school music groups.

The concert featured the Senior High School orchestra and band, the Junior High orchestra, band and chorus, and the A Capella choir. The band performers were gay in their bright colored uniforms.

Orchestra members were dressed semi-formal. Junior choir members wore black robes with white surplices, and the A Capella choir its traditional blue and gold robes.

The Senior High band under direction of Albert Shomento opened the program with three stirring marches, Knights of Youth, Under Escort and the Loyalty march. Following this rousing portion of the program, the A Capella choir was brought on stage for performances of "Break Forth Into Joy," "Rise Up Shepherd and Foller," "Hear My Supplication," and "Stars Lead Us Ever On."

The Junior High School orchestra played several simple but enjoyable numbers, and won much applause for their playing. Their numbers were Some Pep, Little Wonder, the Sorority Waltz and Ching Chang. Under Miss Georgia Kalomiris, the grade school chorus was heard in "Harken All, What Holy Singing," "There's a Song in the Air" and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas."

Miss Jessie Wick, vocal music instructor, directed the Junior High School chorus in Deck the Hall, Jolly Old Saint Nicholas, Up on the House Tops, Luther's Cradle Hymn, and Silent Night. The Junior High School band under A. L. Shomento played the Albert March, Silver Buckles, Pierrette Waltz and a march.

Johann Strauss' Persian March and Cesar Franck's Nations Prayer, from Paris Angelicus, were played by the Senior High School orchestra under A. L. Shomento. The orchestra also played a fantasy of Christmas Carols.

The concert closed with a violin solo, the Meditation for violin from Massenet's "Thais," by Miss Mary Croos. The orchestra accompanied her.

The concert was much applauded, and was rated very enjoyable. Older students won high favor for the calibre of their performance and their selections, and the younger groups stood in good favor for their engaging performance and appearance on the stage. As one woman remarked after

NEW BOY SCOUT TROOP GROWING

Assistant Troop Leader Being Sought

The Rev. Paul Sobel, Scout commissioner for this area, is making an appeal for someone to serve as assistant Scout leader for the recently organized Scout troop sponsored by the Lincoln PTA. At a meeting scheduled for Monday night at the Lincoln school gymnasium, Scout Leader Sid Bouwers arrived on the scene prepared to look after the activities of the eight Scouts who had enrolled shortly after the troop had been launched.

However, he was surprised to find more than twice that number present at the meeting and before the evening was over, more than forty boys were there requesting admission.

Forty boys are more than one Scout master can conveniently handle says Rev. Sobel, and for that reason an assistant is being sought.

Mr. and Mrs. John Riley To Observe Their Golden Wedding Anniversary

Next Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. John Riley of 510 Alger avenue, will be at home to their friends in recognition of their fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. The reception will be held from two to five o'clock and neighbors and friends are cordially invited to be present.

The actual anniversary date, however, is Tuesday, December 21, and it will be a half century from that day that Mr. and Mrs. Riley took the vows which made them husband and wife. The wedding took place in Pontiac at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Dexter, uncle and aunt of Mr. Riley. The Rev. W. F. Sheridan, minister of a Methodist church of that city, performed the ceremony.

Two years after the wedding they came to Manistique and this vicinity, with the exception of two years, has been their home ever since. For years they resided on a farm in Hiawatha township and for the past twenty-one years, Mr. Riley has been green keeper of the Indian Lake Golf course, which he helped to build in 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley are both 72 years old. He was born in Lapeer county and she in Macomb county. They are members of the First Methodist church and Mrs. Riley is a member of the W. S. C. S. and of the Good Will Club of Maple Grove, Hiawatha township. They have two sons, Jay and Glen both who live in Manistique and there are four grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

YULE STRESSED BY WOMEN'S CLUB

Tuesday Meeting Over
To Christmas Theme

The Tuesday meeting of the Manistique Women's Club was held at the Lakeside school with nearly one hundred women participating in the activities which reflected the Christmas spirit at its best.

Mrs. Willard Bolithe, representing the Welfare Committee reported on the baskets that will be packed and delivered under the direction of Mrs. Sydney Bouwer. On a table were dolls, dressed by the Home Economics Department of the high school, which will be placed in the baskets. The club is helping children in another way by their annual contribution of five dollars to the Michigan Children's Aid society.

Mrs. E. T. Lundstrom, chairman of the civic affairs committee, reported that the city council voted $500 to the recreational committee for the Youth Center, and that plans have been made for students of the high school to have a tag day to raise more funds before the Center will be ready for the reopening.

The club members especially enjoyed the prints of Madonnas hanging on the walls with notations about the painters, dates and by whom loaned. One rare print was by Dagnan-Bouveret, loaned by Mrs. William Corson, called "Madonna and Child". "The Star of Bethlehem", portrayed a Jewish mother, as symbolized by the veil she wore. The artist was Pighem, and it was loaned by Mrs. Clifford Cool. Other attractive ones were the noted "Madonna of the Chair", the most popular of Raphael's paintings, loaned by Miss Mary Mitchell; "Madonna of the Grotto", by Carl Muller, property of Zion Lutheran church and the "Madonna of the Chair", loaned by Mrs. George Morton. Mrs. Franklyn Burgess, chairman of the Art Committee was in charge of the fine exhibit of prints of the Madonnas.

Members and guests of the club

The tea table was gay with a large white candle, colored balls, and greens. Hostesses were Mrs. Jack Quick, chairman and Mesdames Radgens, Sheahan, Malloy, Kasun, Woodford, Snyder Hallen and Smits.

'Bowl Games Should Be Championship Affairs'

Atlanta, Dec. 16 (AP)—An answer to the old complaint, "just what does a bowl game decide except who gets the cash," may be forthcoming.

The answer is, "change the bowls. Make them championship games."

The proposal runs, "let a bowl game mean something besides hard money and a local civic attraction. For instance, let the Southeastern and Southern champions meet in Miami's Orange Bowl for the annual Dixie championship."

The idea already is partially advanced in Dallas' Cotton Bowl where the champions of the Southwest play. They could bring in the Big Seven winner every New Year's day to meet the Southwest leader.

The Rose Bowl plan would have to be modified to allow the Big Nine winner to go west annually even if the same team was out the year before.

So the suggestion goes, and it already is being discussed informally in Dixie sports circles.

Reprieve Bowl

Alice, Tex., Dec. 16 (AP)—Departing with a crash from tradition, the Alice Post of the American Legion today announced organization of the Reprieve Bowl, the first game of which will be played here Dec. 29, 1949.

Instead of selecting teams which have won all their games, college teams which have lost all their games will be invited to take part.

The proposal was broached to the Orange Bowl and it was well received by R. D. (Buck) Freeman, chairman of the schedule committee.

Freeman said he could not speak for all the Orange Bowl committee but personally thought "a Dixie championship game in Miami every year was an excellent idea."

He added the plan was full of additional questions and would require a lot of talk and arranging.

Frank Schaub, president of New Orleans' Sugar Bowl, said the plan was a matter for the full board to consider when such a request was formally placed before the board.

To arrange such a game various conferences would have to vote formally and contract to send their teams to so-called bowl every year.

Bowl people avoid accusations of trying to run football and impetus for the series probably would have to come from colleges themselves.

During a recent meeting of southern college coaches, faculty athletic chairman, athletic directors and presidents, the idea was discussed on a cocktail chatter level.

Of 20-odd representatives asked what they thought of the idea, a great majority agreed it sounded good. One university president commented, "only then a bowl would have meaning. I think I would go along with the idea."

Another representative pointed out the plan would end criticism of bowls as being "strictly commercial." Touchy feelings at schools where good teams were overlooked for bowl bids would be salved when only the champions could be invited.

WILDCAT—Frank Aschenbrenner (above), 185-pound Northwestern University halfback from Milwaukee, Wis., shows up for the first day's drill in Evanston, Ill., as the Wildcats start their training for the brush with the University of California on New Year's Day. (NEA Telephoto)

Football Fans Furnish Sport Oddity Of '48

New York, Dec. 16 (AP)—The football fans got smart and furnished the sport's big oddity of 1948.

Harry Bitman, a Denver tailor, offered a free suit to anybody who could correctly name the winners of ten football games he published each week.

He got along fine—a suit here and there—until the week-end of Oct. 30. On that day form prevailed everywhere. The top twenty teams in the Associated Press weekly poll all won their games.

A total of 412 fans scored in Bitman's little contest. He had to give a suit to each. Although his is a modest little shop with no assembly lines, Bitman said he would pay off every winner. The job was expected to take months.

This, in the opinion of the nation's sports writers participating in the Associated Press year-end poll, was the football oddity of the year.

Ability of the fans to pick the scores of not just one game but of dozens figured in another unusual occurrence given mention.

In New York, more than 25,000 persons participating in a newspaper's weekly $1,000 contest, picked 15 games correctly. It took days of close checking to pick the prize winner, a citizen who not only hit 15 squarely on the nail but had the exact score in four.

East Lansing, Mich.—After nine games on the Michigan State football schedule, statistics show that 13 backs on the Spartan team have better than a 5-plus yards-per-try average.

National All-Star Pin Tourney Opens In Chicago Today

Chicago, Dec. 16 (AP)—Sixteen of the nation's top ranking bowlers, including defending champion Andy Varipapa, started match game round-robin competition in Madison Street Armory today in the finals of the eighth annual all-star tournament.

Varipapa, the Hempstead, N. Y., star, and Joe Wilman, of Berwyn, Ill., last year's runnerup, were seeded into the finals. They were joined by a field of 14 who survived 36 games of qualifying play in the preliminary and semi-final rounds.

Steve Nagy of Cleveland, rolled a 1,393 series in his final six game block yesterday to lead the field of 14 finalists with a 7,586 total. Buddy Bomar of Chicago, a former champion, finished second with 7,533 and Ed Easter, veteran Detroit kiegler, was third with 7,505.

The 16 match game rollers will meet each other in four-game matches based on the Petersen point scoring system with Sunday night's closing battles worked out in a position round. In this system, the first Petersen point leader for the first 15 matches will meet the second man, the third will meet the fourth and so on down the field.

10-Year Rose Bowl Seats Being Sold

Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 16 (AP)—The Rose Bowl pact between the Big Nine and the Pacific Coast conference apparently will last through 1959—at least 10-year seats to the grid classic will be sold on that basis.

The Tournament of Roses Association said yesterday that 9,658 seats—to be added after the Jan. 1, 1949 game—will be sold on ten-year leases. The ten-year cost per seat—$55.

Of the total seats, 3,220 will be sold to the general public. The remaining 6,438 will be split between the Big Nine and the PCC. Asked if that meant renewal by 1951 of the current agreement between the two loops, Edward Allen, assistant manager of the association, said "I suppose so."

The 12 teams in the Basketball Association of America will play 60 games each this season.

Alex Thompson Out To Pacify Pro Grid Foes

Philadelphia, Dec. 16 (AP)—Alexis Thompson today opened the way for a new peace offensive in professional football.

The millionaire owner of the Philadelphia Eagles disclosed he planned to "feel out" his National Football League colleagues on their latest reaction to a common draft with the All-America conference.

"Either that or some other sensible solution," he said, "to the fantastic situation that finds me with a championship football team that will lose close to $32,000 this year."

The NFL and AAC have been at loggerheads for three years and the result has been high salaries for players and money losing franchises.

"I'd like to make some sense and cents out of this muddled professional business," Thompson explained.

"Please understand, I'm not the kind that changes his mind on this subject every 24 hours. I'm 100 per cent in back of any policy the league decides on but I'd be a fool if I didn't try and resolve a situation in which most of us are losing money," he added.

The Eagle owner is determined to try and make other NFL owners see the light at the draft meeting here next Monday.

Emeralds Hope To End Jinx Against Menominee Friday

Manistique, Dec. 16—The Manistique Emeralds are grimly determined to end the jinx that has made them losers by narrow margins and even though Menominee, their coming opponent in Friday night's game, is regarded as a tougher foe than any other faced this season, the Emeralds are out to win.

Coach Hilton Ponto, while making no predictions, states without hesitation, that he is proud of his boys and if they play as well as they have in the three starts this season they are going to win games.

The local starting lineup will be about the same as last week. Patz, the Emerald center, is still handicapped with a sore shoulder which must be held in place by a harness and it is unlikely that he will play a whole game, but he is sure to be in half of the playing and will give a good account of himself.

HARMSWORTH TROPHY

New York, Dec. 16 (AP)—Gar Wood, who used to win it regularly, may get another chance at the famous Harmsworth trophy. The trophy, prize of international speed boat competition, will be at stake for the first time since 1933 next summer.

The University of Alabama fielded its first football team in 1892.

Stephenson High Wins Over Powers, 49 To 28

Stephenson, Dec. 16—Paced by six-foot five-inch George Peterson, star of Stephenson's first tournament bid in Class B play last season, the Stephenson Eagles defeated Powers, 49-28, here last night.

Big George dunked in 22 points on nine field buckets and four of six free throws. He got plenty of help from his forward mates, Larson and Blom, who scored 13 and nine points, respectively. Nelson and Coriveau likewise scored 13 and nine points, respectively, for Powers.

Stephenson played particularly well in the first, third and fourth quarters. It was 13-3 at the quarter, 19-13 at the half and 33-17 going into the final quarter.

In the preliminary, Stephenson reserves won by two points.

The Stephenson Eagles play St. Joseph's of Escanaba in the Escanaba Bonifas gymnasium Saturday night.

St. Joseph's Host To U. P. Parochial Meet Dec. 27-28-29

St. Joseph's Trojans, currently enjoying a winning streak that has ardent St. Joe fans counting chickens long before hatching time, will be host to the second annual Upper Peninsula parochial school basketball tournament Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 27, 28 and 29.

It is only right that St. Joe should be the host team this season for the Trojans are the defending champions, no less, having annexed that honor in convincing manner by beating a very good Negaunee St. Paul's team en route to the championship in Marquette last winter.

Six parochial schools will compete for the honor again, and at present writing, St. Joseph's and St. Paul's are again the top ranking teams in parochial play.

Coach Morgan Gingsass' Negaunee five is going great guns this season. That can be said also of Coach Tom St. Germain's Escanaba quintet.

Dick Schram and Steve Baltic will officiate, and all games will be played in the William Bonifas gym.

The championship award is the Monsignor Henry A. Buchholtz Memorial trophy, which must be won three times in a row for permanent possession.

The St. Joseph's Booster club and Knights of Columbus are participating in planning and conducting the tournament.

Meanwhile, the Trojans face the immediate task on hand of playing a very good Stephenson Eagle quintet here Saturday night. The Eagles have a six-foot five-inch center in the person of George Peterson, who scored 22 points against Powers last night and is sure to give the Trojans some trouble.

The Hawks have the highest scoring team in the league—78 goals—but they also have the poorest defense, having permitted 92.

Doug Bentley, Chicago's league-leading point man, joined with Bill Mosienko and Roy Conacher in whipping the circuit leaders.

Bentley had a goal and two assists. Mosienko contributed two goals and one assist. Conacher had three assists.

Detroit scored first on Sid Abel's goal at 2:50 of the first period. But the Hawks came back to ring up three goals within the space of a minute and 41 seconds to settle the issue.

Slew-Foot Charlie, 500-Pound Bear, Is Killed At Blaney

Blaney Park, Michigan—Slew-foot Charlie is dead, and he died as he lived, mean and destructive. Early in the Spring he made himself known by smashing in the windows of the camp of Dr. Karl Christofferson, noted Ornithologist. He followed this by entering the cabin and making a shambles of the papers and books on the tables and shelves, winding up his orgy by smashing a prized bottle of old Irish Whiskey which the Doctor was saving for his Christmas pudding.

Slew-foot was shot in the right shoulder shortly after and was named for his peculiar gait when the shoulder healed. All summer long this 500 pound bear ripped name-signs off trees, broke down cherry and apple trees, tore up sections of borderline fence.

During the deer hunting season Harold Stecker, one of the guides of Blaney Park, came upon his track in the Black Bog during one of the deer "drives". Charlie took out across country and ran smack into the deer stand of John Schwab of Detroit, Michigan, who knocked Charlie off stride and sent him down along a line of hunters who fired 19 shots before stopping the beast, who broke off trees four and five inches thick in his final orgy of rage.

Charlie was the biggest bear to be taken in Upper Michigan this year. His pelt which measured eight feet from nose to tail will be made into a rug.

Deer hunters at Blaney Park fared better than the state average this year . . . 80 hunters getting 64 bucks and 2 bears.
